GPSEN News

Wow! We made the right call to cancel today's End-of-the-Year Party and tour of the Port of Portland. Sure hope this finds you safe and warm. We promise to reschedule.

Beyond crazy weather, there is never a dull moment. With the end of winter term, event-planning for the new year, trainings in development, and resources and opportunities to share continuing to pour in, it is always impressive to see everyone's big efforts. Keep an eye for our Annual Report, too.

GPSEN's next big event is our Sustainability Symposium, on January 27. We are excited to have all of the logistics coming together, with a great line-up highlighting cutting edge ideas and research in our region. Registration details are coming soon. Interested in becoming a sponsor? It would be great to have you involved.

Don't forget to support the educational and networking power of GPSEN by becoming a formal partner or by giving a tax-deductible donation.

Repair Your City: A Village Building Design Course

Saturday & Sunday, December 17 & 18

Join us for this exciting course catered to inspire both long-term and newcomer village builders alike! We will give you our best practices toolkit for change-making in the commons. In this two-day workshop, the City Repair core team will give you an overview of ways to transform spaces into places to help cities and town thrive ecologically and socially.

We will explore topics such as:

- How urban design, sense of place, ecological, and social fabric intersect.
- Affecting political change at a local level.
- How to implement projects this year through the Village Building Convergence.
- How City Repair's work can connect with allied organizations and movements.
- Reclaiming the commons, and re-indigenizing our relationship to place.
- Public art as an expression of shared inspiration.
- Natural building, permaculture, and pollinator gardening.

For cost and location, contact Marc Tobin. RSVP on their Facebook Event Page.

Youth Environmental Job Fair

December 30

5:00 - 8:00 pm

Matt Dishman Community Center

77 NE Knott St, Portland

The Youth Environmental Job Fair, brought to you by the Youth Mentoring Collaborative, will give teens the resources, information, and networking to help them pursue environmental careers. All of the partner organizations involved in the event are now actively hiring and recruiting staff. The Youth Mentoring Collaborative is made up of more than 50 nonprofits, businesses, and government agencies.

Portland Parks & Recreation Environmental Education program, one of the partner organizations, believes in the importance of connecting youth with nature. PP&R's role consists of a pipeline of environmental education, employment, job skills training and outdoor adventure programs for young adults ages 13–24. These programs include the Greenspaces Restoration and Urban Naturalist Team, Jr. GRUNT (GRUNT), internships, and the Youth Conservation Crew (YCC). Other partner organizations include: Portland Trackers Earth, Saturday Academy, Oregon Zoo, the Multnomah ESD Outdoor School, and The Audubon Society of Portland.

If you or someone you know offers jobs for young people, please connect with us and fill out this Google Form!

Webinar: NOAA Climate Stewards Education Project

Monday, January 9

4:30 - 6:00 pm

January's topic is: The United States and Climate Change: Mitigation and Adaptation through Existing Federal Environmental and Natural Resources Laws.

It's easy to accuse the United States of doing little to address climate change: The Federal government has yet to enact comprehensive climate change legislation, embrace enforceable national goals for greenhouse gas emissions reductions, or create a national climate change adaptation strategy. NEVERTHELESS, Federal agencies, Federal courts, and citizens and environmental organizations have been evolving existing environmental and natural resources laws to address and cope with climate change. This webinar will provide an overview of several existing Federal statutes -- the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, the Endangered Species Act, and others -- and discuss how agencies and citizens are using them to both mitigate and adapt to climate change.

Space is Limited! Reserve your seat by clicking here or check out NOAA's website for more information about their Climate Stewards Education Project.

ISSP's Webinar: Assessing Organizational Sustainability

Tuesdays - January 10, 17, 24, & 31

9:00 am - 10:30 am

As more and more businesses move towards the forefront of sustainable development, the first step is to understand their own impacts and operations. ISSP's January 2017 course covers the fundamental concepts and tools of assessing the sustainability of businesses, nonprofits, and other institutions, with the end goal of weaving sustainability into all parts of an organization.

Taught by veteran sustainability consultant Darcy Hitchcock, this course will provide participants with a basic understanding of the S-CORE system, including the ten functional areas and practices common to all organizations. The course will help professionals understand sustainability "on the ground," and track progress towards it. It will also cover how S-CORE can translate sustainability into the language of business, expanding the understanding of sustainability principles and their value throughout any organization.

Volunteer: Help City Repair Move their Office

City Repair has a Dec. 31st deadline to move out of our current location. This is our 2nd move in 2 years, both caused by gentrification. We are leaving our current HQ at SE 8th and Alder and moving to SE 14th and Division, pictured above.

We have many tasks. Can you help? We're packing, cleaning, and moving items from our current space while we are remodeling, planting, and nesting into our new location. Want to cook a meal for our laborers? Have a truck we can borrow? Can you donate funds to help offset our moving costs?

If you have spare time, please contact Kirk at 307-287-0005 (no text) or volunteer@cityrepair.org.

Job: Executive Director at Sauvie Island Center

Portland-based Sauvie Island Center is seeking candidates for a .75 FTE Executive Director position. The Sauvie Island Center serves elementary school youth of the Portland metro area by providing hands-on educational field trips at its Sauvie Island location in Howell Territorial Park, managed by Metro. Through its education programs, the Center seeks to increase the food, farm and environmental literacy of the next generation.

The field trips take place on the Sauvie Island Organics farm, and the curriculum includes modules covering Soil Investigations, Plant Parts Investigations, and Wildlife and the Food Chain. Our trips also include the Grow Lunch Garden, where students plant, tend, harvest and eat fresh vegetables from their own field.

Interested applicants can learn more about the position by clicking here.

Internship (Teens): ZAP - Zoo Animal Presenters

January 25 , 5pm (Application Deadline)

The Oregon Zoo ZAP Program, Zoo Animal Presenters, is a paid internship opportunity for teens (15-16 years old) interested in conservation, teaching, and/or working with animals. Each year, 10 teens are hired into the first year and openings are filled in the 2nd and 3rd years.

- 1st year - First-year ZAP members take animals to summer events, community centers and after-school programs to give educational programs to kids.
- 2nd year - ZAP members serving a second year work as counselors for the Zoo's Urban Nature Overnight (UNO) Program. They teach kids camping skills and nature awareness.
- 3rd year - ZAP members serving a third year develop their own curriculum, provide education to ZooCamps, do hands-on conservation field work and work with UNO.

First Year: $9.75/hour: 25+ hours/week summer, 5-10 hours/week school year

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to us at zap@oregonzoo.org. We will also have a table at the December 30th Youth Environmental Job Fair and will be giving out applications there.

Time for Ideas - Future of Higher Ed Challenge

January 20 (Application Deadline)

Our Future of Higher Ed Challenge has been truly astounding. At a divisive time in our nation's history, our team is humbled by the diversity of participants, personal stories, and opinions joining the Challenge. We cannot wait to watch this inspiration grow into collaborative, tangible solutions! A heartfelt thanks to everyone who has shared or responded with feedback and enthusiasm during the research phase.

After receiving nearly 250 research contributions, we've moved from sharing stories to developing solutions for the real world. If you are a student, are inspired by someone, or simply want to lend your design and innovation talents to this effort, we want to hear from you! All ideas are encouraged during this Ideas phase – from operating organizations to back-of-the-napkin sketches. Throughout the Challenge, we will be showcasing strong contributions on our website to spread these ideas to an even larger audience. In addition, we're excited to offer top ideas $25K in design and bootcamp support, as well as invitations to present and workshop ideas at thought leadership events across the country.

Take a look at our Opportunity Areas – and share an idea, which you can edit or update at any point until January 20th. For more information click here.

Resource: Eco-System Services Approach to Water Resources

InTeGrate is pleased to announce the publication of the complete teaching module, "An Ecosystem Services Approach to Water Resources" on the InTeGrate website. This 3-week module will investigate the ecosystem services associated with local land use and its relation to water. Students will be introduced to ecosystem services as a way of integrating the components of the hydrologic cycle as a system, synthesizing the interaction between the hydrosphere, geosphere, and biosphere, and linking those processes to the needs and aspirations of particular communities in particular places. Full materials for faculty support, adoption, and individual notes/stories from pre-publication classroom practice are available to illustrate a full range of teaching environments.

For more information on InTeGrate's teaching materials, click here.

Resource: Ocean Sustainability Teaching Module

InTeGrate is pleased to announce the publication of the complete Ocean Sustainability teaching module. This 2-to 3-week module introduces the importance of oceans, basic ocean processes, and impacts of human activity on ocean health. It aims to increase awareness of our dependence on and responsibility for the largest habitat on Earth. Materials encourage systems thinking by addressing physical, chemical, geological, and biological aspects of the oceans. Students study the oceans from these multiple perspectives using scientific data and engaging activities designed to support higher-level thinking. Ocean Sustainability is a great fit for courses in oceanography, environmental science, physical geography, marine biology, sustainability courses and marine science courses.

For more information about InTeGrate visit their website or click here for more information about their Ocean Sustainability module.

After-School Tutoring Program

Mondays and Wednesdays

4:00 pm - 8:00 pm

The CENTER

3510 N. Vancouver Ave (cross-street Fremont) Portland, OR

Could your students use a little extra help with their homework? Would they benefit from some free tutoring by experienced educators? Would they like a productive space to study? Perhaps they could use help with college applications or scholarship essays. The CENTER is launching an after-school drop-in tutoring program for youth, ages 11-18, in North/Northeast Portland.

We are looking for experienced and/or retired educators to donate a little of their time to students in need of help with their academics. If you have experience teaching or tutoring in any academic discipline, please consider joining our staff. We're especially interested in volunteers who have connections to the neighborhood surrounding the CENTER.

Want to know more? Go to: www.thecenterpdx.org
